A NEW WAY TO MENTOR VETERANS

Finding work is not a one-person operation. Instead it takes a team of committed people working together to help an individual find the job that is best for them.

Because of this, we have set out to create a system that allows veteran candidates looking for work to connect to people who can work with them throughout the process. That person can be a fellow veteran who can share their experiences in finding a job. Or they can be a military advocate working at the VA or Department of Labor who can coach veterans on how to prepare for a job interview. They can even be a fellow user who can share a job opening they found with their fellow veteran that fits their skills.

There are a multitude of different ways a mentoring platform can be beneficial to a veteran looking for work. And with the ability to live chat, hold video calls, and share information through social media, the JobPath Mentorship platform is the best around!
